Common Name: Germander
Botanical Name: Teucrium chamaedrys

Zone:  5 - 9
Type: Broadleaf evergreen
Height: 8 – 12 in.
Spread: 1 -2 ft.
Habit: Clump forming
Flower: Rosy lavender to pinkish purple
Bloom Season: Late spring to early summer
Foliage: Resemble miniature oak leaves
Sun:  Full sun
Soil: Well drained, somewhat fertile
Water:  Dry to medium
Tolerant: Rabbit, Deer, Drought, Dry Soil
Garden Uses: Hedge, masses, Rock gardens or herb gardens. Commonly planted in old world knot and herbal gardens.

Information provided on the traditional uses and properties of herbs are for educational use only, and is not intended as medical advice. You should always check with your health care practitioner before self-administering herbs.